THE WRONG BOY JUMPED .- Capt. Ellis, of the cavairy, relates the following litte incident, which serves to illustrate how coolly the "horrers of war" are looked upon by our boys. He says in one of the numerous skirmishes in which his company were engaged, dismounted, one of his men, young Kitchen, from Houiton. Me, spied a rebel running acros- the open field opposite. "Now," said Kitchen, taking deliberate aim at the reb, "you'll see that lad jemp," and fired, but missed his mark. The rebel coolly stopped and returned the compil ment, and George received a ball in the fleshy part of his leg. He jumped about four feet and ejaculated, "By jolly, the wrong boy jumped that time."

A Louisville paper notices the fact that er ch large quantities of oil have been empried into the Ohio river from the Alleghant, (connecting with the Pennsylvania wells,) the wheels of steamers are coated with a slimy mixture and retarded in their revolutions. Greating wheels usually makes them revolve more rapidly, but this case is an exception.

There are, or were fecently, two families living in one house in Lynn, Mass, one of whom was named Yell and the other Scream Their next neighbor was named Ball. Mr. Noyes lived in the next street. Notwithstanding this, it is said to be a very quiet neighbor-

The handsome young ladies who recently attended the tables at the Crystal Palace fair. near London, sold cigars to their admir-re and obtained an enormous advance on the common price by simply biting off, first, the end to be placed in the smoker s mouth.

Several females of New York city have sent in claims to the Comptroller for the loss of husbands killed during the late riote The estimate of value of the deceased vary greatly, ranging from ten thousand to as low as two thousand dollars. The electric fluid passed down the entire body of Miss Cornella Jewett, carrying off a galter boot she wore, during a thurder storm in West Wrentham. Though shocked and indivnant, Miss Jewett survives. The Queen of Spain is said to have disgusted all classes of her subjects by becoming onoiente again. Gen. Cass is reported to be in exceeding feeble health.

GREEN HILL is six miles northeast of Washington City, and may be approached by two good roads—either by the Seventh street road, pa sing directly by the Soldiers' Home, or by Norsh Capital street, passing by the Gleswood Censury, and is two miles northwest of the Bialensburg depot, adjoining the lands of Mrs. Mary J. Kirkwood, Messis. Robert Clark, Joseph Kennedy, and Dr. John C. Fairfax, and is justly celebrated as one of the most beautiful places of residence in the vicinity of Washington. The situation is elevated and commands a neawtiful and extensive prospect. The soil is naturally of the first class and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation—is particularly adapted to the growth of corn and grass, and to production for market. One hundred and seventy acres of this land are in WOOD, and it is estimated would cut seven the usand cords of prime firs-wood. There is also, an abundant supply of cedar and locust for fencing The improvements are a commodious DWELL ING HOUSE, and all necessary out houses, incending a large Brick Stable and Carriage House, with a spacious Lawn, Garden and Grounds, tastefully arranged and in good order, and a good Orchard.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American pub-lie; and their reputation and sale, are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of Letters from the most eminent CLERGYMEN, LAWYERS PHYSICIANS,

I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefits he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's florman Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters, at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

Philadelphia, June 21, 1861.

PARTICULAR NOTICE. There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whisky or common rum, costing from to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anice or Oriander Seed.

This chase of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt. Get ensemble Hockand's German Bitters and mix with three quarts of good Brandy or Whishy, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medical virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hockand's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

cost you. ATTENTION, BOLDIERS!

AND THE PRIENDS OF SOLDIERS. We call the attention of all having relations of friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND' GERMAN BITTERS" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to eamp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters, Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedly removed. We have no heatation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise will be lost.

We call particular attention to the following re-We call particular attention to the following re-markable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, 'has been saved by the Bitters:'' has been saved by the Bitters:

PRILADELPHIA, Augustina, M.M.

Massys. Jense & Eccas.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is youshed for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully ecgnisant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's colebrated bettery, and under the immediate command of Captain B. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in Hovember last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy-two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House and sent to this city on board the steamer "State of Maine," frem which I landed on the 2th of June, Since that time I have been about as low as any one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swellow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances, and, accordingly, the physicions who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archez, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Bteinbron, of Sixth, below Arch et., advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the pisce of vague fears—to your Bit

We fully concur in the truth of the above state We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to health.
